Boyd McKee Kitchen

Utah State University Extension
152 East 100 North, Vernal, Utah 84078
(435) 781-5452 boyd.kitchen@usu.edu

EDUCATION

1982	Ph.D. University of Minnesota; Plant Breeding
1981	M.S. University of Minnesota; Plant Breeding
1978	B.S. Brigham Young University; Botany

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2001-Present	Extension Associate Professor, Uintah and Daggett Counties, Utah
1997-2001	Extension Assistant Professor, Uintah and Daggett Counties, Utah
1992-1997	Extension Assistant Professor, Water Quality in Duchesne and Uintah Counties, Utah
1984-1992	Corn Research Director and Research Station Manager, Plant Science Research, Inc., Lisbon, Iowa and Grand Island, Nebraska
1982-1984	Research Station Manager, Ferry-Morse Seed Company, Spencer, Iowa.

CURRENT POSITION – Extension Agent/County Director, Uintah and Daggett Counties
Primary Function: Develop and implement educational programs to help individuals and families in Uintah and Daggett counties to meet their economic, physical, social and cultural needs. Be flexible in programming to respond to the critical needs of the community within the parameters of the mission of USU Extension.

Major Duties:

- Extension (85%)
  - Crop Production
  - Livestock Production and Range Management
  - Pest Control
  - Horticulture
  - 4-H and Youth Development
  - Economic Development
- County Director (10%)
- Service (5%)

Program Highlights

- Crop management
- Pest management and noxious weeds
- Soil testing and fertility
- 4-H volunteer recruitment, screening and training
- 4-H animal science programs

PREFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

National Association of County Agricultural Agents
National Association of 4-H Agents
Utah Weed Control Association