NCHU-USU Collaboration Produces Paper on Climate Change Adaptation Strategies

August 17, 2021

Dr. Simon Wang (USU), alongside Drs. Wan-Yu Liu and Chien-Chen Wu (NCHU) publish a paper regarding ways to make people aware of how climate change is impacting forests and thus forests' ability to provide basic ecosystem services. Results show that awareness of climate change impacting forests can lead to support of forest adaptation measures and policies.
