USU and NCHU Agree to Further Collaboration

March 23, 2022

USU and NCHU signed a new agreement extending faculty and student exchanges between the two universities. Attendees from the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in San Francisco and Taiwanese Americans from Utah, as well as program directors from NCHU witnessed the signing between USU's President Noelle Cockett and NCHU's Vice President Chun-Liang Lin. Both universities hope to foster more collaborations through new programs.
