USU professor Man-Keun Kim supervises/graduates NCHU student Jonathan Vivas

June 30, 2020

Associate professor Man-Keun Kim (USU) has supervised MS graduate student Jonathan Vivas (NCHU) throughout his research experience. The thesis is titled, "Adopting African Indigenous Vegetables in Kenya". Jonathan successfully defended his MS Thesis during June 2020 with Dr. Kim (pictured on screen) attending remotely. Dr. Kim established several collaborations in Taiwan with the support of iPACE and continues to supervise other NCHU students.
